

Preventive-screening engagement moves the gradient; coverage and diagnostic volume do not

Social vulnerability coefficient after adding each set of external covariates, common sample

Mammography completion has no ophthalmic content; it measures whether a county's population completes recommended screening at all. It absorbs ~40% of the gradient, while insurance coverage and diagnostic volume absorb essentially none.